

MEMBERS OF THE WILLIE AND MARTIN
HANDCART COMPANIES OF 1856

A Sesquicentennial Remembrance

Compiled by
Dr. Susan Ward Easton

To my sons...
They the builders of the nation,
Blazing trails along the way;
Stepping stones for generations,
Were their deeds of every day.
Building new and firm foundations,
Pushing on the wild frontier,
Forging onward, ever onward,
Blessed, honored pioneer!

They the Builders of the Nation

PREFACE

The method of emigrating the Saints to the Salt Lake Valley was marred by the tragedy that occurred to the Willie and Martin Handcart Companies. It has been by purpose in preparing this sesquicentennial compilation of vital statistical information to show my appreciation to the Willie and Martin Handcart Companies. Unfortunately, some of the statistical information recorded by the members and their posterity was inaccurate, conflicting, or incomplete. Where possible, research was done to alleviate this problem. The compiled information was gathered and used as a secondary source for submitting pioneer names for temple work to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Genealogical Department. As a result of this study over 500 ordinances were identified and performed for members of the Willie and Martin Handcart Companies in the Provo Temple.

Appreciation is extended to Dean Blaine Porter of the College of Family Living at the Brigham Young University for securing capable secretarial assistance and necessary funding for this compilation. A special thanks is extended to Jane Carpenter and the many other friends who assisted in the research.
